

We-Consent Ambassador Programme

We-Consent is a national campaign to increase awareness about consent and to support everyone to have positive consent conversations.

We are looking for passionate changemakers from across Ireland - of all ages, genders, and backgrounds - to apply to become We-Consent Ambassadors.

This training equips participants with all the skills needed to become consent conversation starters and activists.

What are we asking?

1. Complete our Ambassador Training

WHEN: In-person training will take place on 11 April from 10am–3pm. This will be followed by two further sessions in April. The first additional session is self-led. The second will be held online on 27 April from 6–8pm.

WHERE: In person training will take place in the Fumbally Stables, Fumbally Lane, The Liberties, D08 CP27.

WHAT: Training covers consent, the law, consent culture, how to have consent conversations, activism, trauma and signposting.

2. Consent Conversation Starters

We'll be asking you to open the door to safe conversations with people within your world. Help us spread the We-Consent message - have chats, post on social media, attend events & host your own, distribute consent merch & materials, & help us recruit for our We-Consent Workshops!

APPLICATION PROCESS

Fill in the application form and let us know why you would like to be a We-Consent Ambassador.

Successful candidates will be invited to attend a short interview.

Applicants must be able to commit to completing the full training.

REQUIREMENTS

You don't need experience or qualifications - just a belief in positive change and support for survivors of sexual violence.

Successful applicants receive full training and have access to support and mentoring.

We welcome applications from individuals of all ages, and from all backgrounds irrespective of gender, race, religion, disability or belief.

We encourage applications from people from marginalised communities with unique perspectives of consent.
