

We-Consent Ambassador Programme

We-Consent is a national long-term campaign to increase awareness about consent and aims to support everyone to have positive consent conversations.

We are looking for passionate changemakers of all ages, and all backgrounds, to join us as We-Consent Ambassadors. It includes training that will equip and empower participants with all the tools and skills they need to become consent conversation starters and activists.

What are we asking?

1. Complete our Ambassador Training

- WHEN: In person training on 8 November from 10am-3.00pm. Followed by two online sessions in November. More details will be shared.
- WHERE: In person training will take place in the Fumbally Stables, Fumbally Lane, The Liberties, D08 CP27.
- WHAT: Training covers consent, the law, consent culture, how to have consent conversations, activism, trauma and signposting.

2. Consent Conversation Starters

We'll be asking you to open the door to safe conversations with people within your world. Chat to them about consent, spread the word, post online, come or co-host events, point people in the direction of workshops, hand out leaflets and eventually build your own network of supporters.

APPLICATION PROCESS

Fill in the application form and let us know why you would like to be a We-Consent Ambassador.

Successful candidates will be invited to attend an interview.

Applicants must be able to commit to completing the full training.

REQUIREMENTS

You don't need experience or qualifications- just a belief in positive change and support for survivors of sexual violence.

Successful applicants receive full training and have access to support and mentoring.

We welcome applications from individuals of all ages, and from all backgrounds irrespective of race, religion, disability or belief.

We encourage applications from people from marginalised communities with unique perspectives of consent.

What are we offering?

- A bespoke training course provided by We-Consent and DRCC experienced trainers to leave you feeling empowered and confident to have consent conversations.
- A deep understanding of consent, trauma and meeting disclosures in a safe way.
- Volunteer Opportunities including Days of Action, Culture Night and Pride!
- Quarterly check ins including an exclusive Ambassador Enews.
- Exclusive access to We-Consent and DRCC training materials.
- Support and mentoring from the We-Consent team.
- Exclusive We-Consent merch.
- Further training from experts on topics such as co-facilitation and social media.

Ambassador Programme

We-Consent is a new long-term national programme to inform, educate and engage with all members of our society about consent.

WE-CONSENT AND AMBASSADOR COMMITMENT

Ambassador Commitment

1

Attend in-person training session on Saturday, November 8th. Training takes place in the Fumbally Stables, Fumbally Lane, The Liberties, D08 CP27

2

Complete two online sessions in November. First session is self directed through our online Learning Platform. The second session is a two hour online session with a DRCC Facilitator.

3

Attend in person Ambassador Graduation.

After Graduation, We-Consent Commit

We-Consent Ambassador Enews

Further Training opportunities like social media and co-facilitation

Friday Feedback Sessions

Volunteer, Activism and Outreach Opportunities

Exclusive We-Consent and DRCC Resources

Continued Trust Support and Guidance